PERSONAL PROFILE

Creative and driven Multimedia Journalist with a specialism in TV and audio documentary production. I am fluent in English and German and currently completing a BA (Hons) in Journalism at Edinburgh Napier University. Experienced in investigative research, long-format editing and newsroom environments through a weekly, local newsroom simulation. Committed to producing impactful content that challenges the status quo.

WORK EXPERIENCE

OCTOBER 2025 – PRESENT

Freelance Writer | The Edinburgh Inquirer

Commissioned feature writing on planning permissions, housing and Scotland's high streets. Conducting interviews with councillors, estate managers and business owners for a local, investigative newspaper.
